

EmploymentTalk™ for Organizations

Cost Effective Online Outplacement Support Services

EmploymentTalk™ is a self-directed online career transition tool to help exiting employees.

If you are implementing a reduction in force, then EmploymentTalk™ is the cost effective solution you need. The solution allows your organization to support departing employees with dignity. You will be seen as the organization that cares about its people even when times are financially challenging.

Departing employees gain access to our comprehensive online resources. These tools are essential for conducting a successful job search campaign, and are most critical for the individual to determine their next career move in the least amount of time possible.

EmploymentTalk™ Dashboards include:

- A step by step guide for a successful job search
- Self-interpreted psychometric tools
- Resume development and distribution
- Career research
- Access to aggregated job postings from thousands of sources

insala® It's About Your People.
It's About Your Business.

For more information and to get going, call
1.817.355.0939 | www.employmenttalk.com

What Our Clients Are Saying:

“ This is a fantastic product that will really help our workforce. The Insala team has done a great job maximizing the application capabilities and tailoring it to help our diverse workforce in transition. They've demonstrated a true partnership in providing us with expert assistance, met our special needs and did so in a timely and cost effective manner. ”

- Len Martinez,
VP of Administration and Chief Financial Officer
Kaiser-Hill Company, LLC

